

Replacing Brake Shoes

A Three Handed Job. When replacing a set of Brake Shoes it is useful to be able to hold both shoes in situ while assembling the springs. Why not try an elastic band as your third hand as seen in the photograph below? This allows you to have both hands to exert the necessary pressure to expand the spring.

